

Position: CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR, AD-1811-00 ($62,886-$114,882 Annual)

FAX RESUMES TO: 703-428-0817

The Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction (SIGIR) is seeking highly skilled and motivated current or former Federal Government Employees or United States Citizens to fill multiple Criminal Investigator positions. The positions are located in Washington, DC and in Baghdad, Iraq. The full-time term appointment to this organization will be made in the Excepted Service. Those selected are expected to serve a minimum of 18 months and may be offered the option to extend beyond that date. This position is designated as Emergency Essential.

Applicants who are a graduate of a federal law enforcement academy are highly desirable.

Duties: Incumbent performs criminal investigative duties, involving persons and property under the jurisdiction of the United States Government (USG) pursuant to Federal statutes; plans, organizes and conducts difficult and complex investigations of violations of Titles 10, 15 and 18, United States Code, including contract, program and property fraud, bribery, larceny, embezzlement, collusion, conflicts of interest, anti-trust violations, confidence games, organized crime and its effects on larceny of Government property and influence in USG contracting, and other Federal statutes covering fraudulent activities; plans, organizes and conducts complex investigations into alleged frauds and violations of numerous Federal Acts affecting labor law provisions, USG contracts, contractors and contractor employees; criminal statutes relating to the falsification of contractors' certified payrolls; and fraudulent deviation from, or failure to comply with contract specifications; plans, organizes and conducts comprehensive investigations involving highly delicate matters, issues and investigative problems for which there are few, if any, established criteria, in the shortest time-frame possible, that have been requested by the Executive Office of the President, Members of Congress, Congressional committees, the Inspector General, the Assistant Inspector General for Investigations and other high echelon Government officials, and orally briefs management officials as to the progress of such investigations; plans, organizes and conducts covert and overt surveillances, interviews of suspects, subjects, complainants and witnesses, administers oaths, carries firearms, serves search warrants, conducts searches and makes apprehensions when required; maintains security and accountability of classified and sensitive information; performs other duties as assigned. Must maintain proficiency in the use of firearms; requires good health and better-than-average fitness and may require travel world-wide in fulfilling investigative responsibilities. This position is subject to the Lautenberg Amendment/Domestic Violence Misdemeanor Amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968. Must comply with random drug testing requirements.